Web Development Professional with Recent Training and Skills in Front End, Creative Design, UX, HTML and CSS Seeking Entry-Level Position on the Client Side

Career Interests: A position as an individual contributor with an advertising, marketing or web development firm committed to best-in-class technical and creative execution across all projects

Professional Profile

High-potential web development professional with recent and relevant skills in numerous high-value areas. Intellectually curious with a desire to apply training, technical core competencies and experience to date in a hands-on role calling for initiative, collaboration skills and attention to detail. A candidate with the unique ability to lead the UX design and execute on the front-end development. Best in collaborative work environments valuing the contributions of a diversity of people—executing collectively. Eager and enthusiastic to earn a position enabling me to marry my training, writing skills and ambitions in web design and development. Open to working hybrid, remote or onsite.

Technical Competencies

WEB DEVELOPMENT: HTML • Cascading Style Sheets (CSS) • JavaScript • WordPress • Adobe XD
Google Cloud Platform • API • RESTful API • Bootstrap • React • Redux • Figma • Tailwind CSS • Git
GitHub • Python™ (currently learning)

CREATIVE: Adobe Creative Suite (i.e., Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign and Acrobat Pro) • Canva

APPLICATION DEVELOPMENT: React Native • SQL

DATABASE: MongoDB® • Node.js® • Express

Select Critical Contributions

- WordPress. Successfully completed two WordPress web development projects – both for digital marketing clients specializing in outsourced services. Selected the template, programmed and tested the sites, and created the search engine optimization (SEO).
- Portfolio development. Applying a variety of tools, including HTML, React and CSS, programmed my own portfolio site. Created original graphics and content to suit.
- NFT development. Created original non-fungible tokens (NFT) and posted each for sale on a digital marketplace.
